11. Report of the event :

The HR Society 'Parivartan' , VSBS, VIPS organized a webinar on “Gender Equality” on 12th November, 2021. There were participants from Bachelors of Commerce (Honors) and Bachelors of Business Administration. The session began with lamp lighting ceremony and briefing about the relevance of topic, highlighting VIPS achievements of students. Ms. Indira Bharadwaj, VSBS Dean was welcomed to address speakers and thank them for their presence. She also put her views on Gender Equality and said that empowerment doesn't exist when we talk about equality. With that note, She introduced & welcomed Ms. Renuka to take up the session.

Ms. Renuka started with a good interaction with students by asking them their first thoughts about Male & Female. Further, She highlighted on two different ways in which male & Female are differentiated, i.e. Biological and on Socially constructed ideas; and put forward various statements to identify the basis on which Male & Female are differentiated. She Showed Gender discrimination life cycle beginning from infant to older age and then their transfer to the next generation. After that She finally addressed questions of students, by talking about changing role and meaning of feminists & government steps to overcome Gender Inequality.

The Session was then followed by introduction & Welcome of Ms. Nibedita. She also talked on Gender Inequality beginning with evolution of it & people mindset towards it over the period of time. The esteemed speaker also showed video displaying the transformation of men mindset towards equality by a short story. She also emphasizes on workplace gender equality and way to overcome it. She ended by answering questions of students.

Ms. Sana took the session forward with discussion on difference between Gender & Sex and highlighted different cultural norms and factors behind Gender Inequality. She point out various stereotypes for women, perceptions for her to be beautiful and polite also the preferred profession for her like teaching. She gave one more view of gender Inequality that discrimination can be even between men & men or Women & Women or Men & women.

Ms Niharika Introduced & welcomed to address students on Gender Inequality. She gave light on linguistic skill of pronoun while addressing various gender. She also showed short video on Sexual Orientation & gender Identity, emphasizing on their biological aspect of composition in different gender. Further, She talked about Mensuration and its unclear words that people use like day of month etc. She suggested to use clear words for this. She added that not all women have mensuration nor all men do not have mensuration. She ended with discussion with students that whether special mensuration leave should be given in corporate world or not. The session was then concluded with a vote of thanks to the speaker.
